

Clem,

These photographs are of the scene in the marshalling yards off Jackson's strip Port Moresby after a Liberator had crashed into trucks loaded with troops from the 2/33rd Battalion (Sep 43).

I have the feeling that these were given to us, but you might like to check to see that they do not belong in the 2/33 Bn war diary of Sep 43.

Bill.

Two photographs from this set, being copied. O/N 4531. (Nos 72911-912)

Clem:
Two photos only copied. The others more or less duplicate what we already have on our files of this subject. Gaby.

Looking S.E. from Runway towards MARSHALLING AREA

MARSHALLING AREA

8

Truck No. 2.

Truck No. 1.

Taken from DURRANDS MARSHALLING
AREA looking towards JACKSON DROME

5

4

3

7

6

8

9

10

2

12

1

17

Taken from JACKSON and WARDS MARSHALLING AREA
looking N.W. towards DURRANDS MARSHALLING AREA and JACKSON DROME.

Truck No's

1

2

3

Truck No 3.

Looking S.W. towards CONTROL AREA

Looking S.E. along line of flight towards MARSHALLING AREA.

Truck No. 2.

Truck No. 3.

Truck No. 4.

Truck No. 1

Looking E.S.E. towards JACKSON & WARD'S MARSHALLING AREA

Engine

Tailwheel